EXPERIENCE

Klook Taipei, Taiwan

Program Manager, Hotel Planning and Operations Dec 2025 – May 2026

- Owned the hotel promotion program, yielding a 93 pp year-over-year room night uplift across 500+ participating hotels vs. non-participants by systematizing acquisition-to-reporting workflows, standardizing input/output metrics, and allocating visibility based on origin-destination pairs and price competitiveness

Coupang Taipei, Taiwan

Program Manager Apr 2025 – Oct 2025

- Led the PMO for the Mid-Year Sale (6.18) across 7 departments, contributing to +200% traffic and +150% revenue year-over-year by building a selection mechanism for 100K+ SKUs and prioritizing exposure based on real-time traffic, sales, pricing, and inventory data
- Drove the website revamp with the engineering team, delivering +25% traffic and +1.6 pp homepage click-through rate (CTR) month-over-month by prioritizing business needs, scoping updates in the backend content management system (CMS), and analyzing user browsing behavior by category
- Orchestrated a merchant-funded promotion program, driving +32% merchant funding and +80% promotion gross merchandise value (GMV) quarter-over-quarter by designing merchant incentives, streamlining signing-to-settlement workflows, and tracking budget run rate and return on investment (ROI)

Assistant Program Manager Dec 2022 – Mar 2025

- Launched e-contract and rebate modules in the supplier portal, accelerating contract signing from 2+ weeks to under 3 days and contributing to a 0.5 pp gross margin improvement quarter-over-quarter by crafting business requirements documents (BRDs), conducting user acceptance testing (UAT), and onboarding users
- Built an automated product selection catalog for merchandising with a data engineer, generating +24% units sold and +51% conversion rate in A/B testing by scoping use cases, defining success metrics, and incorporating 10+ behavioral signals (e.g., add-to-carts, reviews, time-to-purchase)
- Implemented a Jira-based creative management system, doubling throughput with the same headcount and saving 10+ hours of back-and-forth communication per week across the team by standardizing request-to-delivery workflows, integrating Slack bots, and tracking turnaround time

Appier Taipei, Taiwan

Product Marketing Specialist Oct 2020 – Mar 2022

- Spearheaded product marketing initiatives for AI-powered MarTech solutions across retail and gaming sectors by producing 10+ case studies, hosting 8+ product training sessions for sales teams and self-serve customers, and consolidating customer feedback for product iteration
- Executed the go-to-market (GTM) strategy in partnership with sales, product, public relations, and operations teams, facilitating the closing of 2 cross-border deals worth $150K+ in total contract value by developing sales collateral and sharpening product positioning
